

Assaults on the Constitution can come in many forms, and perhaps the most insidious assault on free speech is the media monopoly. For a corporation to purchase more than one type of media outlet within a geographic market restricts the information flowing into that region. It is our right as Americans to hear every voice and it is our obligation to ensure that it will always be thus. Uphold the ban on cross-ownership. Thank you.